And whereas, o the 18th day of september last, the President of the United States only issued his proximation, wherein he declared that the privilege of the writ of abless corpus should be supended throughout the United States in the cases where, by the authority of the President of the United States, military, naval, and civil officers of the United States, or any of them, hold persons under their command or in their consistly, either as prince ers of war, spits, or adders or abettors of the sameny, or offi ers, soldiers, or seamen enrolled or drafted or mustered or enlisted in, or belonging to, the land or naval forces of the United States or or naval forces of the Uni

And whereas, many citizens of the State of Ken-tucky havy joined the force of the insurgents, and such insurgents have, on several occasions, entered the said state of Kentucky in large force, and, soil without aid and comfort furnished by disaffected and disloyal citizens of the United States residing iterate, have not only greatly disturbed the pub-tic peace, but have overborne the sivil authorities and made flagrant civil war, destroying property and life in various parts of that State;

And whereas, it has been made known to the resident of the United States by the officers com-gims and seorgia, and even to endanger their safety:

Now, therefore, I, Addanam Lincoln, President of the United States, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws, do hereby decises that, in my judgment, the public asfety especially requires that the suscension of the privilege of the writ of Aubers corpus, to processmed in the said produmention of the lifth of Esptember, 1801, be made effectual and be sully enforced in and throughout the said State of Hentuck's, and that martial law be for the present established therein. I do, therefore, hereby require of the military officers in the said State that the privileges of the writ of habers corpus be effectually suspended within the said State, according to the aforesaid proclamation, and that martial law be otice of this proclamation and to give tu
